NOON DISPATCHES.

The Trans-Atlantic Balloon--The The Departure Fixed for To-morrow--A Duel on the Tapis.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The Trans-Atlantic balloon party have made arrangements with an experienced aeronaut to take personal charge of the inflation. The departure is expected to take place to-morrow. Wise complains that the managers have entirely disregarded his advice with regard to the material for the balloon, and employed an incompetent Superintendent. Wise doubts their ability to repair the balloon.

A dispatch from Washington says that a duel is imminent in consequence of disagreements between Herschel V. Johnson and Gov. Smith, of Georgia. Friends are urging an amicable settlement.

The Yellow Fever at Shreveport—Trains Stopped—Aid Asked For.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 11th.—The Times special from the Chairman of the Howard Association at Shreveport, La., reports that the fever is malignant. Large numbers have left and there are hardly enough well to nurse the sick.

The Shreveport authorities telegraphed for aid to Mayor Brown, confirming former dispatches, and stating that all the railroads running into Shreveport have stopped. The river is falling rapidly, and communication with the outside world is nearly stopped.

Trains Stopped on the Texas & Pacific R. R.—The Government Asked to Interfere.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 11.—The U. S. Marshal at Shreveport, La., telegraphs to Attorney General Williams that the local authorities on the Texas & Pacific Railroad have stopped the cars by force, on account of the prevalence of the fever at Shreveport, and asking that the general government interfere to compel the running of the trains.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The March of the Cholera—Mob Law—Frequency of Railway Disasters in England.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Dispatches from British Consuls in various sections of France, Russia, Italy and Germany, report that the cholera is on the increase in those countries.

There is much excitement in Trolee in consequence of the approaching election for a member of Parliament. Mr. Daniel O'Donahue, the liberal candidate, arrived in the city yesterday, and was received by a large number of his friends and escorted to his residence. While the procession was moving it was attacked by a mob, and several persons were beaten. During the night, armed policemen patroled the streets.

There were three railway accidents in England yesterday. The alarming frequency of disasters of this character of late, has been the subject of much comment. This morning a number of papers called upon the Government to interfere and compel the managers of roads to adopt more stringent measures for the prevention of accidents in the future.

The Boston Press on Butler's Defeat.

BOSTON, Sept. 11.—In commenting upon the defeat of Butler at Worcester yesterday, the Boston Advertiser says: "It is hardly known yet whether Gen. Butler and his champions were a squad or an army. When they started on their expedition they had a fine time for a day or two, everything their own way. Nobody was looking out for them. They not only proposed to take Massachusetts, but declared that they captured Washington, New York, Long Branch, Kansas and all the outlying provinces, and it really looked something like it. The Convention yesterday not only undeceived the people of Massachusetts in this respect, but we trust the Federal Administration, whose confidence has been abused, and whose generosity has been abused in riotous living.

Urged to Support the Government.

MADRID, Sept. 11.—Senor Salmeron, in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Cortes, urged the deputies to give their undivided support to the Administration of Senor Castellar.

The Polaris Search Expedition--Traces of the Missing Crew Found.

ST. JOHNS, Sept. 11.—On the 14th of August the Tigress passed Cape Alexander and Port Foulke. It was now all day-light, and the rock in the vicinity of Cape Olsen was recognised by Capt. Tyson as the same that hid the Polaris from the view of the party on the ice floe. The vessel was here stopped by order of the commander, when the sound of human voices were heard in the distance. A boat was instantly lowered. It was about 9 o'clock in the evening, and amid greatest excitement, commander Greer exclaimed, "I see their house. Two tents are clearly perceptible and moving human figures can be seen on the main land, near Littleton Island." There was considerable exultation on board at this announcement. In an hour afterwards the boat returned from shore, but only brought disappointment to the eager crowd that awaited the intelligence. Capt. Buddington and his party had gone South in the middle of June last in two boats, hoping to meet a friendly whaling vessel to carry them to New Foundland. The Tigress boat was again manned, accompanied for this time by commander Greer and the Esquimaux Joe, as an interpreter.

A crowd of Esquimaux, consisting of five men, two women and two children, greeted them on their arrival on shore, where they found a house abandoned and presenting a scene of the wildest confusion. Broken nautical instruments lay on the floor, while the remains of a mutilated log book were scattered about in every direction. The Esquimaux had come from Ponds Bay, and had remained with the Buddington party all the winter. The house contained a storeroom, a ship's galley stove and table and chairs taken the Polaris. There were fourteen bunks ranged along each side of the chief apartment. Only a half an hour was spent in searching for the records by the commander and his men.

Esquimaux Joe conversed with his kinsfolks present briefly, but the boat was quickly ordered away. This party from the Tigress picked up what curiosities they could and returned to the ship. The boat was manned a third time, and this party picked up some torn diaries. All reference to the death of Capt. Hall being destroyed, with the exception of a torn memorandum, setting forth an agreement between Buddington and Chester to continue the search for the North Pole. Nothing of importance was discovered.

The Esquimaux pointed out the spot where the Polaris had sunk, and stated that Captain Buddington had given them the ship, but that when the ice broke, in the middle of July, she floated into a small cove and went down. A small iceberg had grounded on the wreck, which was in about nine fathoms water. No attempt was made to examine the position of the wreck, and nothing was ascertained as to how the winter was passed, the whereabouts of the missing men, or how they spent their time while waiting for the ice to break out. The entire time of the Tigress in the neighborhood of Littleton Island was only five hours.

The Esquimaux were not sufficiently interrogated. When first seen from the deck of the Tigress these people were in the dress of sailors of the United States Navy, but they subsequently changed their clothes and renewed their Esquimaux apparel. The Esquimaux had but little provisions, their food being nearly all consumed; neither had they any boats. Under these circumstances, through the medium of Dusky Joe, they asked to be taken on board the Tigeress, but commander Geer declined to allow them to do so. After the boat had returned to the Tigress three cheers were given for homeward.

The assistant ice pilot reported an ice blink fifteen miles off, and the vessel was hastily headed South. At fifteen minutes past 2 o'clock this morning, after an imperfect search and leaving the unfortunate Esquimaux behind to battle with fate, then sailed away. Instead of crossing to the westward of Cape York and following the probable track of Buddington's party, toward Pond's Bay, the Tigress returned to Uppernavik on the 19th of August, and arrived at God Haven, Disco, on the 25th.

Although the Tigress has again gone in search, the prospects of finding them are discouraging, unless, as they hoped, they have been picked up by some whaling ship.

GRAND LODGE OF GOOD TEMPLARS.—Our special reporter furnishes us with the following concerning the Grand Lodge of Good Templars at Greensboro:

The Grand Lodge convened Tuesday morning at Odd-Fellows Hall. Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, of Raleigh, Grand Worthy Chief Templar, called the body to order. The following Grand officers were found to be present:

G. W. C. T.—Dr. T. H. Pritchard, D. D.
G. W. V. T.—Miss Annie Lindsay.
G. W. Chaplain.—R. P. Troy.
G. W. Council.—Rev. C. C. Dodson.
G. W. S.—Samuel J. Fall.
G. W. T.—N. B. Broughton.
G. W. M.—W. C. Troy.
G. W. D. M.—Miss Blanche Fentress.
G. W. I. G.—Mrs. V. C. Ayer.
G. W. O. S.—R. M. Crawford.
G. W. A. S. pro tem.—T. C. Worth.

There were about 50 delegates from the other Lodges in the State present.

The morning session was mostly taken up in matters pertaining to organization. It was resolved to hold sessions beginning at 9½ o'clock a. m. and ending at 1 p. m.; the afternoon session to begin at 3 p. m. and adjourn at pleasure.

In the afternoon the Grand Worthy Chief Templar, the Grand Worthy Secretary and the Treasuer submitted their reports. These reports gave evidence of the flourishing and gratifying condition of the Order in the State. It was shown that there are sixty-three subordinate and degree lodges within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, containing a membership, in good standing, of three thousand six hundred and eighty-six. Another feature, which is a matter of heart-felt congratulation and deep thankfulness, is that only six deaths occurred during the year in the State membership.

At the conclusion of the reading of the reports of the Grand Officers, Theo. N. Ramsay, Esq., of Raleigh, submitted a report in relation to the recent assembling of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the World in London, to which Mr. R. went as a delegate from the Grand Lodge of this State. Mr. R's report was one of exceeding interest, and was listened to with great attention. In one portion of the report he alluded to the fact that he had seen, in one procession, 60,000 people marching under the banner of the Independent Order of Good Templars.

After Mr. Ramsay had concluded his report, a number of necessary committees were appointed.

In the evening, Degree Templar Sam. J. Falls, of Raleigh, conferred degrees upon a number of applicants.

To-morrow (Wednesday) morning, the Grand Lodge meets at 9½ o'clock, and the first business that will be transacted will be the election of Grand Lodge officers for the next year.

MORE CONCERNING THE LATE OUTRAGE IN THIS CITY.—The Weekly Era, in its last issue, has the following in regard to the outrage recently perpetrated upon Miss Powell, and of which the DAILY NEWS of Sunday last had a full account. It will be seen that the above named paper substantially corroborates the account which appeared in the NEWS and draws pretty much the same conclusions:

* * * * * *

"As far as we can learn the particulars of this young girl's life they are as follows: About the year 1861, when only five years of age, she was brought to this city by a woman calling herself Lucy Brockwell, hailing from the State of Ohio. She stated that the girl was of white parentage and born in that State, and that she desired to secure for her some good home in a respectable family. She was first hired by a Mrs. Simpson, then by a Mr. Beasely and finally by Mr. J. P. Adams, her present employer. We learn that each of the above named parties with whom she has resided, speak of her in kind terms and represent her as having conducted herself with great propriety in every respect. It is but justice to officer Lane, who went with the woman to the house of Mr. J. P. Adams, to state that he was totally unacquainted with the woman Betsy Powell, and went merely as a friend to what he considered a distressed mother trying to reclaim an erring child.

The case is certainly a strange one, and the sympathies of the public have been much aroused in favor of the girl. In either event, the woman, Betsy Powell, has exhibited the instincts of a brute in the base proposal which she is alleged to have made to one she claims as her own offspring, and even should no relationship exist between them her vile proposition to an unprotected and innocent girl, stamps her as a devil in human shape.

There is a looseness in the government of this city, and a laxity above shown in the discipine and instruction of the police force which the Mayor and Commissioners are called upon to correct. If the facts are as above reported by a good Republican whom the Era sent out to gather them, Policeman Lane cannot be too severely nor too promptly reprimanded for his conduct in a position the duties, dignity and responsibility of which he seems neither to understand nor appreciate."

We learn that Miss Powell has written to Ohio, and will in a short time have positive proof that her parents are white, and that not a drop of African blood flows in her veins.

CAPT. R. A. SHOTWELL.—The many friends of Capt. R. A. Shotwell will be glad to hear of his unconditional release from the Albany Penitentiary. He arrived in this city yesterday evening by the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad and took rooms at the Yarborough House. During the afternoon and evening he was visited by a large number of our citizens who were more than pleased to extend him their hearty congratulations. He is looking well and in the enjoyment of good health. Capt. Shotwell will remain in the city till this P. M. when he will resume his journey homeward.

L. W. Barringer and brother returned to the city yesterday afternoon.

REMINISCENCES OF PUBLIC MEN.—The North Carolina Gazette (Fayetteville,) of the 11th instant, has the following interesting article under the above caption:

By the death of Gen. D. M. Barringer, we are reminded of the last speech we ever heard him make. It was from the balcony of the Fayetteville Hotel, during the last Presidential campaign; and he then stated that he could recall the days of his boyhood, when he used to come over Haymount into the streets of Fayetteville, a barefooted farmer boy, with his father's wagon. He spoke of his astonishment and wonder at the greatness and splendor of the place, for at that time Fayetteville was the town of North Carolina.

Many still living here, while reading recently the newspaper accounts of the great French property case, in which Hon. Judah P. Benjamin has been engaged, and in which he has proved the heir-at-law to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unprepossessing fellow, sickly, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a lad, and took up their abode in Louisiana.

The farmer boy who followed the wagon was the future member of Congress and the Minister to the Court of her Catholic Majesty, the Queen of Spain. The obscure pupil at the common school was afterwards Secretary in Davis' Cabinet, honored barrister at the English bar, and today Counselor of her Majesty, the Queen of England."

IMPORTANT TO RALEIGH.—We understand on good authority that application will be made to the next Legislature for a charter for a railroad from Raleigh to Battleboro, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

This project, if consummated, will add immensely to the wealth and prosperity of Raleigh, and open to this market the richest and most productive portion of Eastern Carolina.

By tapping the Wilmington Road at Battleboro, the cotton of Nash, Edgecombe and the counties below, which has heretofore been shipped to Norfolk, Petersburg, and the Northern cities, will, have a route leading directly to Raleigh, and it would come here, provided our Eastern farmers be convinced that ours is as good a market as the others. This can be easily done, as figures do not lie. The greatly increased quantity of cotton sold here last season, over twenty thousand bales, is good evidence that the superiority of Raleigh as a cotton market is gradually being appreciated by the public.

The trade of Raleigh, in all its branches, would be greatly augmented if this city had direct communication with the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad at the point above indicated. For not only would the cotton of Nash, but portions of Franklin, Edgecombe, Martin, Pitt, Bertie and others sections would pay their fertile productions into the lap of this city, and it will be difficult to estimate the advantage that the Capitol of North Carolina would reap from it if the proposed enterprise is consummated.

ARRIVAL OE MONS. PLANCHON.—As announced yesterday morning, Mons. Planchon, the commissioner of the French government, arrived in this city yesterday evening, accompanied by Mr. Labiaux, of Ridgway. He was met at the depot by Messrs. J. M. Heck, R. T. Fulghum, John C. Blake and Jordan Stone, from the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society, and escorted to the Yarboro House. He yesterday evening visited "Thomasburg," the vineyard of Messrs. Mahler and Blake, located near this city. Mons. P. is throughly acquainted with the grape business of France, and has been sent to this country by his government for the especial purpose of looking into the grape growing interests of America, with a view of seeing if the vines of France can be improved to any extent by graftings from our vineyards. Within the last few years a blight of some character has seriously affected the vines of France, which it has been impossible to check, and it is thought that by the introduction of our cuttings into the French plant this evil may be checked if not healed. To this end, this commissioner will visit all vine sections in this country. He will leave this evening for the South, but will return here in order to be in attendance upon the State Fair.

OXFORD ITEMS.—Our Oxford correspondent sends us the following items from his section, under date of yesterday:

Hon. D. M. Carter has been on a visit to our village for several days past.

Mr. E. W. Pou organized a lodge of Grangers here on the 9th instant, numbering some ten or fifteen of the staunchest citizens in the county.

On Sunday last the Rev. Mr. Griffeth preached an able sermon in the Methodist Episcopal church, enforcing the peculiar doctrines of his denomination. At the conclusion of his discourse fifteen of the converts who made a profession under his ministerial labors, were formally admitted as members of the church. At the recent revival at this church, some twenty-five or thirty souls professed faith in Christ, and Mr. Griffeth urged those who did not join the Methodist church to connect themselves with some other christian denomination.

A WHITE GIRL SOLD INTO SLAVERY.—Under this caption the Era of yesterday says:

"The sensation of the late reported abduction affair brings to mind a case wherein a beautiful white girl, with auburn hair and blue eyes, was sold into slavery in this city in 1860. The case was veiled in mystery, and when some gentlemen attempted to inquire into it, they were warned not to persist, or they would be regarded as Abolitionists and treated accordingly."

Will the Era gratify public curiosity by giving all the particulars obtainable concerning this affair?

An old man named John Speese, says the Philadelphia Press of Saturday, who hails from Germany, and was engaged as a porter at the William Penn Hotel, on Market street, above Eighth, was admitted to the Pennsylvania Hospital yesterday, under the following extraordinary circumstances: Speese had left the hotel some time since, and returned a few days ago complaining of feeling unwell. Yesterday morning he went to the cooler in the bar-room and took a glass of water. He attempted to swallow the fluid, but was unable to do so, for as often as he made the attempt so often the water refused to go down, but spirted out of his nose and mouth. This proceeding was so curious that it attracted the attention of the bystanders and they asked him what was the matter. Here again happened something curious. The old man pointed to his tongue and shook his head, but said no word. His motions were so extremely like those of Mrs. Joe, Gargery ("Great Expectations"), after she got off "the rampage" through the instrumentality of a blacksmith's hammer, that all came to the conclusion that he was trying to convey the idea that he "could not talk." He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital and a doctor examined him, but no result then was obtained other than the belief that the man was dumb, either from choice or necessity. If the latter, no theory could be devised which would meet the case.

Mr. John A. Denney, a young merchant, who disappeared from Cumberland, Alleghany county, Md., mysteriously in the early part of August last, has returned home, and states that he was drugged in New York and abducted to Chicago, where he was robbed of nearly all the money upon his person, about $1,000, a draft of over $2,000 and a small amount of money escaping the search of his abductors. At Chicago he was again drugged, and next found himself in the Rio Grande region, engaged in herding cattle. He left there at once and made his way to Fort Guion, where he telegraphed to his wife, and receiving no answer proceeded on his way home, where he arrived on Sunday last looking careworn and much fatigued with his journey.

In the case of Mrs. Charles Allen, now in jail at Staunton, Va., for the murder of her husband, Charles Allen, an analysis of the contents of the stomach of the deceased shows a drachm of arsenic. The stomach was sent to Prof. Mallett, of the University of Virginia, for further examination, but he not having time to make the analysis, it was returned to Staunton.

JAY GOULD'S GOLD LOSSES.—It seem to be generally conceded by the New York journals that Gould lost from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 by the fall in the price of gold, but the opinion was very generally expressed that his plans for reimbursing himself, by tight money and operations in stocks, are likely to prove successful.

The Rev. Newman Hall, in bidding farewell to his congregation in London, said he proposes first to go to Niagara and rest awhile, and then to travel from city to city preaching the Gospel, lecturing on teetotalism, and promoting as far as could the bonds of brotherhood between the two nations.

Mr. Andrew Carnagie, a wealthy resident of New York, has given $25,000 for the erection of public baths in Dunfermline, Scotland, the place of his birth.

FINE GROCERIES
—AT—
J. M. MONIE'S,
Two Doors Below Tucker Hall.
We have this day opened at our new store a fresh and largely increased stock of goods. These goods having been carefully selected, they will be found to be all claimed for them, and they will be sold at the lowest possible prices consistent with solvency.
We would call especial attention to our STOCK OF TEAS,
Our largely increased trade in this line giving us facilities for the constant handling of fresh Teas, which are selected with particular reference to their drawing qualities. As five pounds of Coffee, costing $1.50, is only equal to one pound of Tea, costing $1.25, it is clearly to the interest of the purchaser to look to this fact.
Sugars of all Kinds.
Try our bright, free, yellow Sugar 8 pounds to the dollar.
We keep on hand an elegant lot of Coffee, Cloves,
Nutmegs and other Spices,
Fresh Country Butter,
Wood and Willow Ware,
Irish Potatoes,
Meal, freshly ground, at $1,
Flour of different grades,
Rich mild Cream Cheese,
Crockery, Toilet Soaps,
Washing Soaps;
Excellent Mattrasses,
Bedsteads, &c.
Call and examine the stock before purchasing elsewhere, as we are determined, all things being equal, we will not be undersold by any house in the city.

THE DAILY NEWS,

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

FRIDAY.....SEPTEMBER 12, 1873.

GONE UP—not the Graphic's balloon, but the Graphic's balloon trip.

We are pleased to learn that the health of Capt. J. D. Stanford, Editor of the Magnolia Monitor, is improving.

THE BUTLER stock is up in Massachusetts.—Wash. Republican, Sept. 2.

For the above, read: The BUTLER stock has "gone up" in Massachusetts.

THE sentimental method of asking a person to drink, is in the formula: "Suppose we shed a tear."—Roanoke News.

The tears come after the drinking, according to the statements of temperance orators.

THE Roanoke News says that "Judge G. G. Lynch, of Weldon, went to New York, to witness the balloon ascension" of Wednesday last.

The Judge has an equitable demand on the Graphic newspaper for his travelling expenses and hotel bills.

THE defeat of BUTLER in Massachusetts is the severest rebuke the President has yet received. All his officials, under orders from Washington, worked gallantly for the Beast. But the Beast was distanced in the race, and the Administration is in disgrace.

A correspondent of the Roanoke News, writing from the old Sweet Springs, Virginia, after giving an interesting budget of news concerning that fashionable watering place, adds "that he hopes to return to Weldon in time for the circus."

Wonder if this corresponden t, who, the News says, is a young M. D., will not like a peep at "ye animals" also. De gustibus, &c.

GEN. JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON does not wish to be interviewed, and sent the following to one of the Herald's correspondents:

"DEAR SIR—I have the honor to receive the note of to-day, in which you ask me, on the part of the New York Herald, to reply to certain political questions.

It would give me pleasure to have the privilege of doing so, but not being a citizen of the United States I do not publish my political opinions.

Most respectfully yours,
J. E. JOHNSTON."

The Herald editorially makes some very severe, unjust and contemptible comments in this very respectful note of the ex-rebel General.

Gen. JOHNSTON is still under disfranchisement, while his former slave enjoys all the rights of an American citizen. We think the Herald's comments should be levelled against the policy of the Government, and not against a gentleman of character and intelligence, who is placed beneath the most ignorant freedman in political privileges.

Defeat of the Administration in Massachusetts.

The defeat of the Spoon Thief for the Gubernatorial nomination in Massachusetts is Grant's defeat.

Soon after the Convention met, BUTLER'S name withdrawn, and WASHBURN was then unanimously nominated.

It has been evident for several days past that BUTLER'S chances were gradually diminishing. The confidence with which his friends beheld the first election of delegates began to give way to apprehension as WASHBURN commenced to gain on his wily opponent, and apprehension was changed into utter despair when the Convention assembled and the Beast found himself in a hopeless minority.

The Administration lent its whole power in favor of BUTLER'S nomination. All the Federal office-holders in the State rallied to the aid of the BEAST, and the whole influence of the President was exerted in his behalf. The Washington Chronicle, his acknowledged organ, boldly espoused his side and the leading Radical newspapers of the country stood by the Administration in its efforts to force the SPOON THIEF upon the people of Massachusetts, in spite of the more decent and independent of the Republican party in that State. A few Republican journals, like the Boston Advertiser, could not stand such dictation from the President, but proclaimed the intention of the honest Republicans in Massachusetts to utter a voice at the Convention against Butler, "which would be heard in Washington above the chink of the Treasury gold, and at Long Branch, above the roar of the surf." And a correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Worcester, two days before the nomination, gives the views and feelings of the anti-Butler delegates. After stating the latest phase of the contest, that it was not a fight against Butler alone, but a fight against the Administration as well, the correspondent gives the language of a distinguished Republican as follows: "We are going to win a double victory; we shall beat Grant and Butler both. And I pray out of this all may come somehow a party in which a man may continue with self-respect, for it has ceased to be the case with the Republican party."

This is bold language for a leading Republican, and shows that when the President stoops down from his high position to endorse such a man as Butler, he will not be sustained by the decent men in his own party.

"North Carolina and Her Future."

In the Cosmopolitan, "an international newspaper of news, politics, commerce, literature, art, society," sent to us from London, we find a lengthy editorial on the subject of "NORTH CAROLINA AND HER FUTURE," which purports to give some of the reasons why North Carolina is not a great and prosperous State.

This editorial is evidently written in the interest of the Midland North Carolina Railway Company, extending from Beaufort harbor to the Tennessee line, which was chartered by the last Legislature. The object of the Cosmopolitan seems to be to induce English capitalists to invest in this enterprise.

We give to-day some extracts from this paper, and will conclude the article to-morrow:

NORTH CAROLINA AND HER FUTURE.

There was a time when the Lords Proprietors held sway in the old North State—when the noble families of Beaufort, and Hyde, and Craven, and Tyrrell, and Carteret—the Onslows, the Arundels, and the Richmonds, and many others that we might mention—not only gave their names to the counties which many of them still bear, but their wealth for their development and their blood for their defence. In those days more was known about the great State of North Carolina, in this great metropolis of the world, than is known to-day. Then—when the Lords Proprietors held sway—the harbor of Beaufort (which is still the best in the Southern States South of Norfolk) presented a busy scene, and the warehouses, on the Thames, of the rich proprietors teemed with the virgin produce of that now almost forgotten State. It would be idle for us to express an opinion whether the present generation of North Carolinians have lost or gained by the changes which they were first to agitate; but, whether they have lost or gained, we cannot help expressing the conviction that although probably for ever politically separated from Great Britain, there is an absolute community of commercial interests which they have long seen, and to which we hope our merchant princes and great capitalists will no longer shut their eyes. We build fleets of ships and splendid steamers to develope the trades of the Antipodes; we send abroad to the uttermost parts of the earth rich cargoes of our handiwork; we send forth our skilled miners to dig for ores or work the coal-fields of barbarian countries, tens of thousands of miles away; we send our operatives to erect and work factories where there is only the skilled labor, and only their lips can speak the language of civilization. We stretch the girdle of intelligence about the earth, and send our giant cable-laying fleets to every sea and ocean; we build railways for all the world, and lavish untold millions not only in enterprises which are rolling forward the world's progress at a fearful pace, but oftentimes in far-away schemes which only exist as evidences of our English pluck and enterprise. And yet here—almost at our very doors, scarce three thousand miles away, within some ten days of our own shores—is a land which was once our own, richer, far richer, in soil, and minerals, and timber, and all the crude elements of wealth and prosperity, than any country with which we have relations, and only requiring the magic touch of capital to become the paradise of earth! Why is it that North Carolina, possessing natural advantages superior to any other State in the American Union, has been so long kept in the background. And why has she permitted other less-favored States to eclipse her in apparent prosperity and population? The problem is easy of solution. In the first place, the institution of slavery offered an insuperable obstacle to the highest and best development of the true interests and resources of this State; in the second place, the geographical position of the State, in its relation to the Great West, and the marvellous increase of population in that direction, has, through the lack of a proper appreciation of that position by her own people, been a great, although unseen, cause of retardation in her progress. Let one but glance at a map of the Atlantic States, and he will readily appreciate what we have to advance. North Carolina, it will be seen, lies between two great systems of foreign and internal communication. Possessing herself the most central and commanding position of any State in the Union, she has permitted the great sea of prosperity and progress, which for the last half century has swept Westward on the the North American Continent, to roll by her in two distinct waves—one to the South of her and the other to the North.

We will leave the Gulf States out of the question in discussing this problem, merely calling attention to the fact that New Orleans mainly owes her prosperity to the great natural highway of the Mississippi River, Mobile to the Alabama, and of later years Galveston to the fact that, poor as it is, Texas has no other harbour. Passing Florida as of trifling importance, we come to Georgia. This State and her principal seaport, Savannah, owe most of their prosperity to the Georgia Central Railroad, and the internal railway system connected with it. She has a large foreign commerce, and in time will be rich and powerful. The policy of her people has been to make her the great highway from the Atlantic to Northern Alabama, and they have been wise in so doing. Next we come to South Carolina, with her Grand Trunk Railway bearing the State name, and all its ramifications, stretching away towards Alabama and Tennessee, and striving to make Charleston the Southern metropolis. For the present we make no comments upon this afflicted State, further than to say that she must purify her political system, and her colored citizens must learn the value of citizenship and an honest name before they can expect that substantial foreign aid which they desire, to restore their financial system and develop their resources."

THERE are now strong hopes that the affairs of Spain will soon assume a more cheerful aspect. CASTELAR, one of the greatest orators of modern times, who is now at the head of the Ministry, is said to possess fine executive ability. He will commence at once such vigorous operations against the Carlists as will almost certainly lead to their utter overthrow. We have confidence in CASTELAR.

THE Hillsboro Recorder, remarking on the fact that under the new postage law, the resources of the Post Office Department have been increased, while the quantity of mail matter has but slightly diminished, pertinently remarks:

"Since the Department has found itself in so short a time capable of self-support, and since it was never intended to make the Post Office Department a source of revenue, but only subsidiary to the interests and convenience of the people, why is it not just to make a reduction of postage on letters, and bring them to a level with the Postal Cards? If one can be carried at a profit to the Governments, why not the other? If one class of matter brings a profit at one cent, why will not the other? The popularity and immense use of the postal cards is owing to their cheapness. Why not apply the same rule to letters and thus secure the public in the inviolable privacy of their correspondence which is so rudely broken in the card system?"

The suggestion of our Hillsboro cotemporary is a very sensible one and we heartily endorse it.

Postal cards will frequently not answer the purpose of correspondents, who do not wish their private matters revealed to the world. The reduction of postage on private letters to postal card rates will be of great advantage to the public. We hope to see the matter favorably considered by the next Congress.

Senator Thurman, of Ohio, delivered a long political speech at Waverly, in that State, on Tuesday last, which was devoted entirely to a close and sharp review of Credit Mobilier, back pay, and other short comings of the Republican party.

STATIONERY.
N. C. ALMANAC, 1873.
Calculated by Dr. Craven, and compiled by L. Branson, printed on fine-sized and calendered paper, neatly and elegantly.
It contains many useful recipes, much valuable statistical matter, and many items. It is emphatically an AGRICULTURAL ALMANAC. It is different from every other Almanac; has been published a number of years and sold successfully.—It is, we think, certainly as good if not better than any other.
AGRICULTURAL

SPECIAL NOTICES.
BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Billiousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.
How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment ext rnally, this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. Robt. Whitfield, pressman of the Magnolia Monitor, met with a severe accident the other day. His left arm was caught in a cotton gin and badly injured.

Over a hundred bales of new cotton passed over the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad on Saturday, destined for various parties in Baltimore. So says the Roanoke News.

The down freight train on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad ran off the track, between Wilson and Black Creek, on Saturday. Two or three cars were slightly damaged.

The friends of the Carolina Central Railroad are very active. Their plan to extend the road from Lincolnton (via Newton) to Hickory Tavern, on the Western N. C. R. R. is likely to be carried into effect. Individual subscriptions are relied on to to carry this into effect.

Says the Wilmington Journal of the 10th inst:

"Mr. Dempsy Reynolds, a citizen of Columbus county, residing near Bogue P. O., was accidentally killed last week by being thrown from his ox-cart. He was sitting on the ox-cart talking to a friend, when some dogs began barking at the oxen, frightening them so that they instantly started off on a run. Mr. Reynolds was then thrown from the cart and struck on his head, breaking his neck. Deceased was about 45 or 50 years old, was an honest, hard-working man, and leaves a family."

Cheating is infinitely various and requires a great deal more ingenuity than honesty does. The latest thing is the bogus pup dog. A London gentleman writes to the newspapers that a man near the Crystal Palace offered him two puppies for sale, one a real Cuba worth £1, and the other a black-and-white Japanese terrier, priced at £3. The writer, on stroking the puppies, found in them a strong resemblance to the feline race, particularly about the claws and teeth; and when one of them actually purred, it dawned upon him that the puppies were kittens trimmed and cut in canine fashion. The vender laughed when he was found out; and the next day actually sold one of the "puppies" to a little girl.

A very pleasant and suggestive little note concerning woman's work comes from San Francisco. Several years ago two young sisters of that city resolved to prepare themselves for active business life, and their parents assenting, they came to New York and studied the art of engraving thoroughly at Cooper Institute. Then they went back to California, opened an engraving establishment, and began their work skillfully and faithfully. The result is that they are obliged to engage assistants. Engraving is an art to which the taste and ability of women should naturally lead them.

The whole West must at some remote period have been most uninviting country, if we may believe the speculations of the geologists. It was east of the Mississippi, one vast sheet of ice. With curious particularity they trace the glacial action, the erosion of vast bodies. Thus were formed the peaks and domes, the ridges, and the dark, gloomy canons. The waving grain fields were then a fit home for the polar bear, and the whole outstretched land glittered in the sunlight from enormous spires and bergs making their slow way southward.

Twelve thousand dollars a year are, in the English Court of Chancery, going a begging under the following circumstances: It was left to poor debtors in prison, and as imprisonment for debt has been abolished, the money must be due somewhere, but the question is, where? Here is the chance for the heirs. The bequest having failed, they are entitled to claim, without doubt, as inheritors. If there should be no heirs, the sum in question will be applied to some charity as near in kind as possible.

A WESTERN FARMER'S DAUGHTER ON THE STUMP.—One of the largest farmers' meetings ever held in Iowa was that which met at Washington, of that State, last week. The Chicago Tribune says:

Sixty granges took part in the procession, robed in the regalia of their order, and there were about ten thousand farmers on the ground. They were addressed by Dudley W. Adams, Master of the national grange, and Miss Garrettson, a farmer's daughter, who is declared to have made the better speech of the two.

The remains of a chief of the Ottawa tribe of Indians have been found in the road bed, on the banks of the Maumee River, in Ohio. Several arrow-heads, and a tomahawk of stone, a mammoth broach, a pair of silver bracelets, and innumerable little trinkets, were found about the remains; and in the vicinity a stone hatchet and a copper bucket were exhumed.

Remarkable Elephant.

The following necdote was related by Major Brown, of the Fortieth regiment, to the lateMr. Stephen Round, of New Windsor, Berks: During the siege of Pondicherry, in the East Indies, by the British army, when M. Lally was Governor there, there were in the French garrison several war elephants, all of which except one died from the scarcity of provisions, and the survivor would have shared the fate of his companions but for his uncommon sagacity, which rendered him a favorite with every one and the object of general admiration. This animal, in the absence of his keeper, was one day amusing himself with his chain in an open part of the town, when a man who had committed a theft, and was pursued by a great number of people, desparing of all other means of safety, ran for protection under the elephant. Apparently delighted with the poor wretchs confidence, the creature instantly faced about and met the crowd, erected his trunk, and threw his chain in the air, as is the manner of these animals when engaged with enemy, and became so furious in defence of the criminal that, notwithstanding all the gentle arts made use of by the surrounding multitude, neither they, nor even his mahout, or driver, to whom he was fondly attached, and who was sent for to manage him, could prevail with him to give up the malefactor. The contest had continued for about three hours when at length the Governor, hearing the strange account of it, came to the spot, and was so much pleased with the generous perseverance of the honest quadruped that he yielded to the elephant's interposition and pardoned the criminal. The poor man, in an ecstacy of gratitude, testified his acknowledments by kissing and embracing the proboscis of his kind benefactor, who was apparently so sensible of what had happened that, laying aside all his former violence, he became perfectly tame and gentle in an instant, and suffered his keeper to conduct him away without the smallest resistance.—Leisure Hours.

General N. P. Banks will enter the lecture field this Fall with the following subjects: "Will it Endure," a review of the American Republic and the dangers which threaten it; "Public Opinion," "Burlingame," "Dryden, the Father of English Poetry," and "Scandinavia."

W. Page McCarthy, who killed John B. Mordecai in a duel near Richmond, Va., in May last, lies now in a critical condition from the effects of the wound he received at the time. The ball has not been found, and any movement of his body gives him great pain. His recovery is decidedly doubtful.

An Indiana woman, whose suit for divorce had lingered along until she was completely out of patience, burst into her lawyer's office last week, her face radiant with joy, and exclaimed, "Squire, the old man's dead!"

Col. Roundell, an English traveler, who undertook to explore the interior of Persia in the disguise of a peasant, is believed to be dead, as no tidings have reached his friends for several years.

A factory has been opened in Staunton, Va., for the manufacture of pipe stems, fishing corks, &c., from corn stalks, by the patentee, Mr. William H. Bryant.

The tract ceded by the Crows to the United States amounts to between six and seven million acres, a great portion of it being exceedingly fine land.

Since the late Wawaset disaster the Washington papers are advocating the establishment of swiming classes in all the public schools.

The Pawnees are in Omaha purchasing guns, revolvers and ammunition. The hair-raising season is about commencing.

The three mineral springs of Ann Arbor, Mich., give forth waters impregnated respectively with sulphur, iron and magnesia.

There are 4,000 slaves at Quilon, East Africa, offered at from half a dollar to three dollars each without finding a purchaser.

Five kittens, all joined together at birth, have been a nine days' wonder in New-London, Conn.

Dr. G. W. Holland died suddenly at his residence in Norfolk, Va., on Tuesday.

Josephine Mansfield's English lover borrowed $3,000 from her and walked off.

DOWN! DOWN!! DOWN!!!

The "Tumble" Now Complete.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET THE ADVANTAGE, AND

ZACHARIAS & CO.'S

IS THE PLACE.

"Low prices will win," and "Small profits and quick sales" are truisms that have been satisfactorily tested by ZACHARIAS & CO., in the city of Raleigh.

By a strict adherance to these important rules, their business has increased so rapidly that necessity compells them at an early day, to commence the work of enlarging and extending their store room.

In view of this fact, they now offer their large and attractive stock of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Clothing, &c., to the public, REGARDLESS OF COST.

Think of it; bear it in mind, then tell your neighbors that they are selling

Fast Color Prints at 10c. per Yard.

Stout and Heavy Brown Domestics at 10c. per Yard.

BOOTS AND SHOES AT AND BELOW COST.

Ready-made Clothind at fabulously low prices. And all other goods (too numerous to mention,) at prices accordingly.

COME ONE! COME ALL!

and see for yourselves, No trouble to show goods. Don't forget the place,

ZACHARIAS & CO.,

a few doors south of Tucker Hall, Fayetteville street.

☞ Our goods are all purchased by a resident partner in New York, who has the advantage of the daily auction sales of that city.

They have no old stock on hand. The Spring and Summer goods, in short, every article in the store are the present Spring and Summer purchases. july25-tf

GRANDEST SCHEME EVER KNOWN.

Fourth Grand Gift Concert
FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE Public Library of Kentucky.

12,000 CASH GIFTS, $1,500,000.

Every Fifth Ticket Draws a Gift.

$250,000 for $50.

The Fourth Grand Gift Concert authorized by special act of the Legislature for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, will take place in Public Library Hall, at Louisville, Ky, Wednesday, December 3, 1873.

Only sixty thousand tickets will be sold and one-half of these are intended for the European market, thus leaving only 30,000 for sale in the United States, where 100,000 were disposed of for the Third Concert. The tickets are divided into ten coupons or parts and have on their back the Scheme with a full explanation of the mode of drawing.

At this concert, which will be the grandest musical display ever witnessed in this country, the unprecedented sum of divided into 12,000 cash gifts, will be distributed by lot among the ticket-holders. The numbers of the tickets to be drawn from one wheel by blind childdren and the gifts from another.

LIST OF GIFTS:

One Grand Cash Gift		$250,000
One Grand Cash Gift		100,000
One Grand Cash Gift		50,000
One Grand Cash Gift		25,000
One Grand Cash Gift		17,500
10 Cash Gifts	$10,000 each	100,000
30 Cash Gifts	5,000 each	150,000
50 Cash Gifts	1,000 each	50,000
80 Cash Gifts	500 each	40,000
100 Cash Gifts	400 each	40 000
150 Cash Gifts	300 each	45,000
250 Cash Gifts	200 each	50,000
325 Cash Gifts	100 each	32,500
11,000 Cash Gifts	50 each	550,000
Total, 12,000 gifts, all cash, amounting to		$1,500,000

The distribution will be positive, whether all the tickets are sold or not, and the 12,000 gifts all paid in proportion to the tickets sold—all unsold tickets being destroyed, as at the First and Second Concerts, and not represented in the drawing.

PRICE OF TICKETS:

Whole tickets $50; Halves $25; Tenths, or each coupon, $5; Eleven Whole Tickets for $500; 22½ Tickets for $1,000; 113 Whole Tickets for $5,000; 227 Whole Tickets for $10,000. No discount on less than $500 worth of Tickets at a time.

The unparalleled success of the Third Gift Concert, as well as the satisfaction given by the First and Second, makes it only necessary to announce the Fourth to insure the prompt sale of every Ticket. The Fourth Gift Concert will be conducted in all its details like the Third, and full particulars may be learned from circulars, which will be sent free from this office to all who apply for them.

Tickets now ready for sale, and all orders accompanied by the money promptly filled. Liberal terms given to those who buy to sell again.

DOUBLE ACTING
FORCE PUMPS,
KITCHEN BROS.,
(Successors to CAROLINA PUMP COMPANY, LOCATED IN RALEIGH,)

Are prepared to furnish at short notice the Kitchen Pumps of various sizes with Porcelain Cylinders which can't injure the water. This is a submerged deep well pump, now in use 2½ years without the expense of new packing. We make all sizes, capacity 35 to 150 gallons water per minute, working in every conceivable way and by the use of hose which can be attached in half a minute, these pumps at once become a hand engine of great power, throwing water on the roof of three story buildings, with one hand, and they will stand four to six men safely. We have not heard of one of them being overcome by fire, and yet they have been tested by over fifty fires, saving over $500,000 worth of property. For ordinary use children work them easily if set up by our printed directions, and if so set we warrant them 12 months. Our Double Suction and Force Globe Pumps, also invented by J. L. Kitchen is capable of being used as a Drive well pump and is well adapted to steamers and vessels of any class; one man can throw water on the roof of 3 story buildings. But it has a double ended lever and with four men is a very superior hand engine. The No. 2 Globe Pump is 12 inches in Diameter with 1¼ suction and 1¼ discharge pipe and throws 40 to 100 gallons per minute, according to speed. The No. 3 Globe, 7 inches in diameter, 1 inch suction and ¾ of an inch of discharge pipe, capable of 25 to 30 gallons per minute. These Globe Pumps we make of cast iron for common use, brass for salt water and block tin for the inside of houses for drinking water, they lift the water 25 feet perpendicular, and you can sit it in the house and draw water from springs or wells at great distances.

All kinds of steam and water pipes fitted at short notice; hose, hose-pipe and couplings furnished here, &c.

Send for price list. The entire depth of wells with good references must accompany all orders.

Some few of these pumps have not given satisfaction but in each case it has been attributable to the maker and not the principle of the pump. We are now employing the best mechanics only, and are determined to have none other.

GREENVILLE, April 19, 1872.

MR. J. L. KITCHEN—

Sir—I have been using one of your pumps driven from my steam engine, for supplying my tanks. I have used it continually for two years, and can confidently recommend it for any purpose where water is required. The pump is so constructed that it will last without getting out of order for years, and I have heard no complaint from any of your many pumps used in this locality for yard well pumps.
WM. S. BROADDUS.

John C. Gorman and W. C. Stronach, of Raleigh, give certificates stating that they have had the pump in use one and two years, are perfectly satisfied with it, and it has not cost them one cent for repairs.

Messrs. Wilson and Waddell, at Wilson's Mills, on the North Carolina Railroad, write that the No. 2 Globe Pump, with 150 feet of 1¼ inch hose, purchased from the Messrs. Kitchen to protect their mills and sash and blind factory against fire, is the best pump they have ever seen. They will buy another as soon as it can be made, for another well. Several parties have examined their pump and will buy others like them. aug 5-D&Wtf

THE FLIGHT OF TIME.

Faintly flow, thou falling river,
Like a dream that dies away;
Down to ocean gilding ever,
Keep thy calm, unruffled way:
Time with such a silent motion,
Floats along, on wings of air,
To eternity's dark ocean,
Burying all its treasures there.

Roses bloom, and then they wither;
Cheeks are bright, then fade and die;
Shapes of light are wafted hither—
Then, like visions, hurry by:
Quick as clouds at evening driven
O'er the many-colored West,
Years are bearing us to heaven—
Home of happiness and rest.

It seems that nearly one hundred persons die annually in London of starvation. The last case of this kind recorded in our British files is the of one Elizabeth Burnett and her child, who were both found dead on a pallet of straw in an upper room at Peckham. The corner and his jury found the body in a state of putrefaction so advanced as to make an inquest offensive, and to render a post motem examination dangerous to the operator. Drink did not bring her to death; she was a tectolar. Idleness did not starve her; she worked at needlework. She and her baby died of hunger. She was asked to go to the poor-house, but she declared she would sooner die on the bare boards than go to people who were harsh and cruel. And she did so, exclaiming, not unnaturally, "Thank God, I am dying at last,"

President MacMahon, according to the Paris Soir, has expressed himself to some deputies with whom he is on friendly terms to the effect that he never could serve France under the white flag.

The Patrons of Husbandry have built large grain warehouse at Blairstown, Iowa, and will ship large quantities of grain to Chicago this season.

Mrs. Dolly Love, the last pensioner of the Revolution, is reported to have recently died in Ulster county, N. Y. She was over one hundred years old.
